Glossary of terms

Term	Definition
Allowing a payment despite lack of funds	The account provider allows a payment to be made from the customer's account although there is not enough money in it (or it would take the customer past their arranged overdraft limit).
Arranged overdraft	The account provider and the customer agree in advance that the customer may borrow money when there is no money left in the account. The agreement determines a maximum amount that can be borrowed, and whether fees and interest will be charged.
ATM balance enquiry	The customer views the account balance at a cash machine.
Card cancellation	The account provider charges a cancellation fee if the customer cancels the card order within the first 14 days and a card has already been ordered in the customer's name.
Cash withdrawal in euros in Europe	The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in euros at a cash machine in Europe.
Cash withdrawal in a foreign currency outside Europe	The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in foreign currency at a cash machine outside Europe.
Debit card payment in euros	The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in euros. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone.
Debit card payment in a foreign currency	The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in foreign currency. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone.
Issuing of debit card	The account provider sends a debit card to the customer.
Issuing of additional debit card	The account provider sends a debit card to the customer for an additional user.
Maintaining the account	The account provider operates the account for use by the customer.
Receipt of international payments	When money is sent to the customer's account from an account not using a SEPA transfer.
Receipt of payments in euros – SEPA	When money is sent to the customer's account from an account using SEPA.
Refusing a payment due to lack of funds	The account provider refuses a payment from the customer's account because there is not enough money in it.
Replacement debit card	The account provider sends a replacement debit card to the customer.
Sending money in euros – SEPA	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account using SEPA.
Sending money outside of SEPA zone	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account outside of the SEPA zone.
Unarranged overdraft	The customer borrows money when there is no money left in the account (or the customer has gone past their arranged overdraft limit) and this has not been agreed with the account provider in advance.
